MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Significant Items for Director of Central Intelligence Briefing

In response to your verbal request, the following are significant items for the Director of Central Intelligence briefing:

a. The employees' former sit-down dining room in the Headquarters Building has been completely remodeled and was reopened on 19 October as the Rendezvous Room. Government Services, Incorporated, the cafeteria operator, is providing a buffet luncheon service at a nominal cost and initial reaction of employees is quite favorable.

b. A task group has been formed to study and make recommendations for establishing methods and requirements for armoring vehicles assigned to Agency personnel in certain countries where recent events have placed personal safety of our employees in jeopardy.

c. The General Services Administration currently has under review the possible disposition of a portion of the Fairbanks Highway Research Station adjacent to our Headquarters Building tract. Officials of both GSA and the Federal Highway Administration were briefed and provided copies of a proposed CIA usage plan for portions of this property should it become available. The usage plan merely depicted the general location and type of various buildings, i.e., office, special purpose, etc., which we would erect on the site.
